INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

Taxes may be paid by mail. Please make check or money order payable in U.S. Funds to: TOWN OF BUCKFIELD

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

Taxes may be paid by mail. Please make check or money order payable in U.S. Funds to: TOWN OF BUCKFIELD

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

Taxes may be paid by mail. Please make check or money order payable in U.S. Funds to: TOWN OF BUCKFIELD

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

Taxes may be paid by mail. Please make check or money order payable in U.S. Funds to: TOWN OF BUCKFIELD

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

Taxes may be paid by mail. Please make check or money order payable in U.S. Funds to: TOWN OF BUCKFIELD

INTEREST AT 7% PER ANNUM CHARGED BEGINNING NOVEMBER 16, 2016 AND MAY 16, 2017

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

Taxes may be paid by mail. Please make check or money order payable in U.S. Funds to: TOWN OF BUCKFIELD

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

Taxes may be paid by mail. Please make check or money order payable in U.S. Funds to: TOWN OF BUCKFIELD

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

INTEREST AT 7% PER ANNUM CHARGED BEGINNING NOVEMBER 16, 2016 AND MAY 16, 2017

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

Taxes may be paid by mail. Please make check or money order payable in U.S. Funds to: TOWN OF BUCKFIELD

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

Taxes may be paid by mail. Please make check or money order payable in U.S. Funds to: TOWN OF BUCKFIELD

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

Taxes may be paid by mail. Please make check or money order payable in U.S. Funds to: TOWN OF BUCKFIELD

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

INTEREST AT 7% PER ANNUM CHARGED BEGINNING NOVEMBER 16, 2016 AND MAY 16, 2017

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

Taxes may be paid by mail. Please make check or money order payable in U.S. Funds to: TOWN OF BUCKFIELD

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

INTEREST AT 7% PER ANNUM CHARGED BEGINNING NOVEMBER 16, 2016 AND MAY 16, 2017

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

INTEREST AT 7% PER ANNUM CHARGED BEGINNING NOVEMBER 16, 2016 AND MAY 16, 2017

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS

Taxes may be paid by mail. Please make check or money order payable in U.S. Funds to: TOWN OF BUCKFIELD

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

INTEREST AT 7% PER ANNUM CHARGED BEGINNING NOVEMBER 16, 2016 AND MAY 16, 2017

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

INTEREST AT 7% PER ANNUM CHARGED BEGINNING NOVEMBER 16, 2016 AND MAY 16, 2017

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

TAXPAYER'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that at least one half of your county, school and municipal property tax is due by November 15, 2016 and the remainder is due by May 15, 2017. Under State law, the ownership and valuation of all real estate and personal property subject to taxation shall be fixed as of April 1st. For this tax bill, that date is April 1, 2016. If you sold your real estate after April 1, 2016, it is your responsibility to forward this bill to the current property owner. Failure to do so may result in a tax lien filed against your name should the new owner not receive and/or pay the tax due. If you have an escrow, please forward a copy of your bill to your mortgage holder prior to the due date.

INFORMATION

This bill is for the current tax year, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017. Past due amounts are not included. As a result of the money Buckfield receives from State Legislature through the State Revenue Sharing Program, Homestead Exemption Reimbursement and State Aid to Education, your property tax bill has ALREADY been reduced by 52.32%. Current outstanding bonded indebtedness is $1,168,482.34. Distribution of property taxes are: School 63.2%, Town 32.6% and County 4.2%.

If you have not yet applied for the Homestead Exemption, stop by the Town Office for an application. To be eligible for the Homestead Exemption, you must own your Buckfield dwelling AND reside there.

REMITTANCE INSTRUCTIONS
